

PRESS RELEASE

Brixham Does Care goes Wild for the West Country in its next Zoom Singalong

BRIXHAM DOES CARE virtually paid a visit to Wimbledon in their latest Zoom Singalong online. Hosts Martyn & Josephine Paddon, together with the regulars and a couple of new attendees, appeared suitably dressed in an assortment of blazers, bow ties, fedoras, baseball caps, sweat bands, sun glasses, visors and tennis shirts, together with tennis rackets, nets and balls. Also on show were essentials for the Centre Court, such as strawberries and cream, bottles of prosecco, Pimm's No. 1 and, of course, a number of handy umbrellas. In true 1996 spirit, when rain stopped play, the "crowd" were entertained by a number of Cliff Richard songs, plus some from Elvis, Gene Kelly and local residents, The Wombles.

The next scheduled Zoom Meeting is: -

The BDC "WILD WEST COUNTRY" Zoom Singalong on Monday 9th August 2021 at 2pm. .

The Dress Code can be ANYTHING YOU LIKE. Picture the scene: you could be on a wagon train in the North American Gold Rush; or enjoying an evening's entertainment in the Dodge City saloon provided by Diamond Lil. Dig out those cowboy/cowgirl shirts, kerchiefs, bandanas, waistcoats, jeans, leather chaps, ponchos, cowboy boots, lariats, lassos, sheriff's badge, six-shooters and holsters, all topped off by a Stetson/ten gallon hat, (unless, of course, you plan to be a Rhinestone Cowboy/girl). Or maybe a squaw! The music genre is going to be COUNTRY (& Western, if you prefer). Think Nashville's Grand Ole Opry, with Hank Williams, Johnny Cash, Don Williams, Bobbie Gentry and Jim Reeves; Alternatively, think Somerset and The Wurzels! In which case, a cider drinker's smock will suffice.

Of course, fancy dress is not obligatory. It just adds to the fun.

Taking part is the most important thing. Either way, we all intend to horse around!
