

PRESS RELEASE

Brixham Does Care heads to Wimbledon for next Zoom Singalong

BRIXHAM DOES CARE paid tribute to the Cruise Ships anchored in Torbay in their latest Zoom Singalong online. Hosts Martyn & Josephine Paddon, together with the regular group of attendees, suitably dressed in Smart Casual and Formal attire, sailed off on an imaginary cruise. A big THANKS to Rob for getting things underway with his super Sax rendition of “Bridge over troubled waters.” Everything went smoothly after that. Having initially set sail on a slow boat to China, our itinerary somehow managed to include Hawaii, other tropical islands and even Old Cape Cod. Songs made famous by Emile Ford & The Checkmates, Elvis, Fats Domino, Bill Haley, Marty Wilde, Patti Page, The Springfields, Rod Stewart and The Hues Corporation helped carry our ship over the waves.

The next scheduled Zoom Meeting is: - The BDC “Wimbledon” Zoom Singalong on Monday 5th July 2021 at 2.00pm.

The Dress Code can be ANYTHING YOU LIKE. Imagine you have been lucky enough to obtain tickets to one of the top matches at this year’s Lawn Tennis Championships. Perhaps on the Centre Court, even rubbing shoulders with some of the celebrities invited into the Royal Box. Dressed in your Smart Casual attire, complete with sun hat, sun glasses/visor, enjoying champagne and strawberries. Of course, you might be a competitor given a wild card, decked out in your white tennis outfit, or even an official line judge, referee or ball-boy/girl. N.B. Visible PINK knickers are usually frowned upon! Alternatively, you might have to settle for a place on Henman Hill with your packed lunch and can of lager or bottle of prosecco. Naturally, we should all pray for good weather, not wanting RAIN to stop play. But, if that should happen, we can always rely upon someone like Cliff Richard to entertain us while we are waiting for the sun to re-appear, NOT to mention The Wombles! Of course, fancy dress is not obligatory. It just adds to the fun.

Taking part is the most important thing. Either way, we all intend to kick up a racket!
